

00:13:16 Laura Czopek: Hi! I'm Laura Czopek and I'm the Director of Therapy and Occupational Therapist at Clearbrook.

00:13:52 Maria Seymour: Hi all! I'm an acute/rehab OT based in Evanston

00:14:04 Anne Kiraly-Alvarez: Welcome everyone!

00:15:01 Samantha Holzschu: Hi! Will these slides be available for review after the presentation?

00:15:08 Anne Kiraly-Alvarez: Yes!

00:17:21 Laura Czopek: Reacted to "Yes!" with

00:17:45 Nicole Brown: Hello one and all. Nikki Brown. Elmhurst MOT student.

00:19:48 George Buckley: The recording from tonight will be posted tomorrow on the Call for Papers webpage of our website:
<https://www.ilota.org/2023-conference-call-for-papers>

00:22:10 Celia Bono: Hello everyone! Celia here, an MOT student from Elmhurst University. Would you suggest choosing general if your primary target audience does not fit into any of the other categories?

00:24:18 Celia Bono: My apologies, I mean for primary practice concentration

00:27:16 Maria Seymour: 400 character description per author, or total for all authors?

00:32:39 George Buckley: From our Call for Papers webpage, you will see this: "NOTE: We recommend that you prepare your submission content (title, description, abstract, speakers, etc.) in advance in MS Word to copy-and-paste into the fields. You will not be able to save your submission along the way, and must complete the form once you begin. If you are submitting more than one proposal, you can return to this webpage at a later time to submit an additional proposal."

00:34:22 Celia Bono: Thank you!

00:37:32 Marie-Claude Touchette: For the poster presentations, our students do not have their results completed yet for the proposal but will have their results by the time of the conference- what do you suggest for that?

00:38:27 Marie-Claude Touchette: Thanks

00:38:38 Kate Frankiewicz: Thank you!

That is good to know

00:46:23 Anne Kiraly-Alvarez: Anne's email- membership@ilota.org / akiral@midwestern.edu

00:47:25 Samantha Holzschu: I have to run, but thank you! This has been super helpful!!

00:49:48 Joy Hyzny: Thanks!

00:50:01 Marie-Claude Touchette: Thank you so much for doing this

00:50:03 Kate Barrett:
kate.barrett@depaul.edu

00:50:05 Maud Makoni: Thank you very much
Anne and Kate.

00:50:05 Laura Czopek: This was very helpful - thank you!!

00:50:11 Kim Parr: thank you very much

00:50:15 Donald Swager: Thank you Kate,
Anne, and George!

00:50:18 Kate Frankiewicz: Thank you!

00:50:20 George Buckley: Here are PDFs of those two resources. Just click on them in this Chat section to access and download them.

00:50:22 Katie O'Donnell: thank you!

00:50:24 Nisha Sanghvi: thank you